

Raku is coming back to the Art Center!

RAKU • FEST

WALK-INS WELCOME!

Saturday and Sunday, June 3-4, 9-5pm

Led by our inimitable Peter Syak and assisted by Lisette Bedoya, we will have a full blown Raku firing weekend! Beginners are welcome! Now is your chance to learn the fascinating firing process originally developed in 16th century Japan. Experience the fun of a Raku firing first-hand while learning the process of glazing and the meaning and aesthetics of Raku. Workshop will also cover safety issues and pieces you fire are yours to take home at the end of the workshop.

Drop by the Art Center for RAKU•FEST! We will be firing all day, with snacks provided!

OPTION ONE: ALL ARE WELCOME!

Total beginner? No problem! Buy pre-made pieces to paint and fire, right before your very eyes. It takes 2 hours from glazing to amazing – you can make art in the time most people would take to watch a movie!

- Small pots: $55
- Plates: $20
- Jewelry pieces: $10

OPTION TWO: POTTERS' SPECIAL (starts at 8am)

Are you a ceramicist? Bring up to 3 pieces of your own small bisqueware and fire them for $20 each! Stay all day and you can learn the process from top to bottom!
